In the application of Chapter 2 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act 51 of 1977), as contemplated in subsection (1), section 20 of the said Act must be construed as if the following paragraph had been added to it:

- '(d) which is a firearm, muzzle loading firearm or ammunition as defined in section 1 of the Firearms Control Act, 2000, and is on reasonable grounds believed to be in the possession or under the control of a person, who by reason of any physical or mental condition, is incapable of having proper control of any firearm, muzzle loading firearm or ammunition or who by such reason presents a danger of harm to himself or herself or to any other person.'

- (ii) one or more persons as possible perpetrators of the offence.

(2) The person who has control over a firearm, muzzle loading firearm or ammunition seized in terms of this section must immediately return it or otherwise dispose of it in terms of this Act when it is clear that it will not be of value as evidence.
